1.Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. This claim needs to be clarified to indicate that the combined amount of the two fluoroethanes is more than 60% by weight of the composition.

2.The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 14-20 and 22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith et al. (5,276,063) as set forth in the previous Office action.

3.The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4.Claims 24-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith et al. (5,276,063) a set forth in the previous Office action.

5.Claims 21 and 32-33 are allowed. It is suggested that any antecedent basis issues in claim 21 be obviated by inserting "blowing agent" after "A" on line 1.

6.Applicant's arguments filed June 27, 2005 and September 22, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that HFC-134a is only one of 48 specifically disclosed as a tertiary blowing agent and none of the examples in

Art Unit: 1732

Smith discloses the use of HFC 134a. But the disclosure of Smith is not limited to its examples, and the fact that Smith may disclose 47 embodiments other than the embodiment relied upon by the examiner does not obviate that embodiment which is relied upon.

Applicant's arguments concerning solubility and vapor pressure with a focus on HFC 134a are noted by the examiner, but these arguments are not commensurate in scope with the instant claims. Applicant also argues that HFC 134a cannot be a secondary blowing agent, but even if this is so, it is unclear as to why the instant claims at issue would not still be readable on the Smith reference.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
